Begin text:

Arab League Secretary General Amre Moussa asserted that the Arab League's vision of UNSCR 1636 on Syria was based on the fact that the resolution was issued in accordance with Chapter Seven of the U.N. Charter and, therefore, should be dealt with completely. Moussa pointed to Syrian Foreign Minister Farouk Al-Sharaa's remarks at the Security Council, namely that Damascus would cooperate with the investigating commission to the utmost. Meanwhile, unidentified Arab diplomatic sources in Beirut stressed that Syria was exerting efforts to try to prove to the international community its good faith and behavior towards the international investigating commission.
